Before Now by Norah Olson (1) Before Now by Norah Olson (1) Sitting on a piece of driftwood, looking out at the water. The sea glitters with the reflection of a thousand stars. I am calm as I write these words in the moonlight. My last words. Our last words. We took all the pills. One or two at a time so we wouldn't throw them up, until we finished the last of forty; sitting, looking out at ...

Debut writer Norah Olson's fast paced writing had me wondering what I'd read on the following page. I loved that she included both adult and teen POVs, including emails and journal entries, because that gave characters additional dimensions through the eyes of their siblings, friends, parents or law enforcement. My biggest criticism is that I would have appreciated one more chapter explaining ...
